Fé Valvekens opens a showroom
for her yoga-cum-fashion brand
A Day with Fé

PURPOSEFUL THREADS

WHAT? Fashion brand A Day with Fé specialises in comfy yet stylish yoga threads that you can wear both on and off the mat.

WHO? Founder Fé Valvekens returned to Hong Kong (her temporary childhood hometown) after years of working in France and Geneva, began practising yoga and became hooked after the birth of her first child. "I did a lot of exercise, but yoga was the one I stuck to – I love it!" she proclaims. "As a result, I spent a lot of my time in my yoga clothes, which were all neon and very athletic. I found the gear was either super-sporty looking or more casual but lacking in quality, so I wanted to bridge the gap with my designs."

HOW? Inspired by ballet and French brands Eres and Repetto, Valvekens sought to translate the same elements of femininity and elegance into her clothing. They come in calming, neutral hues and are divided into Sweat (activewear), Cuddle (knitwear), Work/Play (silky, elegant styles) and Mr (menswear). Each piece has a mantra embedded inside, so only the wearer can see it. "Mantras in yoga are very important and personal, as they centre you. I wanted to allow people to feel centred when they are off the mat too," she says.

WHERE? A Day With Fé opens its first showroom at PMQ this month – a store plus space to host yoga, lifestyle and wellness events – and is available online. Unit S502, Block A, PMQ, 35 Aberdeen Street, Central. See [www adaywithfe.com](http://www adaywithfe.com).
